

A B "Rocky" Towery, Jr.

January 28, 1960 - January 24, 2025

Rocky was born on January 28, 1960 in Amarillo to A B Sr. and Juanita Towery. He remained in Amarillo throughout his life, working as a mechanic, maintenance of way at Santa Fe Railroad, street repair for the City of Amarillo and in transportation for Affiliated Foods and was currently employed with Jax Transports. He was an avid NASCAR fan and enjoyed watching wrestling as well as fishing and having BBQs with family. He cherished family gatherings and specifically loved Christmas because of the memories he was able to make with his family. Rocky cherished time spent with his grandson, "Hootie" (Matthew Cook) playing and enjoying life together. Rocky is survived by his wife, Mary Guenther of Amarillo; 3 daughters, Elizabeth Walden, Melissa Garza and Lisa Garza; step-children, Miranda Dominguez and husband Marcus, Billie Hudson, Susan Clark and husband Cody, Lisa Lahr and Jennifer George and husband Josh; brother, Russel "Rusty" Towery and many grandchildren and great grandchildren left to cherish his memory.

Ok Rockey I'm talking to you my buddy I didn't have that balls to stand up at your funeral a talk but you know me well!! We worked together side by side an we was a good team we got it done!! Rockey your boat was a prize possession in your life a you chose me an my wife to own this boat because you told me I knew y'all would take care of it. I will have it till I die Rockey!! I talked to you a week before all of this. I'm glad I called you! I I always called you a told the new technology that I put on you boat an it was always dammit boy!! You told me you have got to take me Fishing before I dye if I can hold a pole because my hands are so bad!! Well my friend every time I catch a fish it's got name on it. I LOVE YOU My Friend!!!!!!!!!!!!
