

Abram Gonzales

October 9, 1966 - January 21, 2026

Abram Gonzales Jr. was a loving, loyal, and kind man who deeply cherished his family. As the oldest brother of six siblings, he carried a strong sense of love and responsibility for those around him. Family gatherings were the greatest joy of his life, and if it had been up to him, he would have kept everyone together—always close and safely within his arms.

He was a devoted father of four children, whom he loved with every breath he took. He was also the proud grandfather of seven grandchildren, whom he adored deeply. Though miles and distance kept him from spending as much time with them as he wished, he made do with what he could, treasuring every moment and loving them endlessly.

He was preceded in death by his mother, whom he admired; his father, whom he loved; and his beloved sister, whom he loved deeply and who was also his best friend. Their bond was so close you would have thought they were twins. He treasured every moment he spent with her as she bravely battled nearly eight years of cancer, especially in the days before her passing. Just days later, he went home to be with the Lord and was reunited with his loved ones.

He now rests in peace, free from heartache, held in the loving arms of the Lord he trusted so deeply. His memory of loyalty, love, courage, and devotion will continue to live on in the hearts of those he leaves behind.

“ My brother Abram was a great man. He loved and was the most loyal person I knew. However, most importantly his family was his greatest gift. He will be missed terribly. I love you brother give our momma and our little sis a great big hug for me and pops while your there and the rest of our loved one's brother. I thank God for choosing you to call my Baby brother kid! Now you rest high little brother rest high on that mountain because you are free from all you walked through here on earth. I love and miss you and our little Brenda so much, I don't know what I'm going to do without you guys here.
