

Anthony Joseph Lamothe Jr.

April 6, 1971 - July 26, 2024

Anthony was born on April 6, 1971 in Holyoke, MA to Anthony Sr. and Norma Lamothe. He moved to the DFW area as a child, where he was raised and attended schools. He worked for Kroger Grocery Store in Dallas for over 20 years, lastly working in the meat market. Anthony was an avid bowler in a bowling league and participated in many tournaments. He was a die-hard Red Sox and Patriots fan and enjoyed other various sports. He enjoyed playing poker with friends and was always willing to take time to engage in conversation with dear friends and obtained various nicknames from his beloved friends. He was a good man, a great friend and a loving brother.

Anthony is survived by his brother, Wayne Lamothe and wife, Heather of Tulia and many cousins, mostly of the New England area.

He was preceded by his parents and his brother, Craig Lamothe.
