“ I've known the Sherwood family since Bambi and Beau were toddlers. They couldn't say my name so I was "Blennil." If they saw Mama out in the yard, they'd say, "Hi, Blennil's mama!" When I'd stay the night with Holly, we'd help Carol and Benny wrangle the twins into baths and beds at night. I have such wonderful memories of the entire family. They remain some of my family's most special friends. Sending love, hugs, and prayers to Beau's loved ones. May God grant y'all comfort and peace.

“ Whenever I would hang out with beaus step-son Nathan, he would almost always be there. Beau would always make everyone laugh. At least me for the most part. Beau had a specialty of a good humor. He knows so much and corrected us on whatever we were fixing, or messing around with. He is as smart as a detective. Always knowing what to do. He holds a special place in my heart and will always remember him. May the lord rest with you and rest all of the family members whom he loved and was loved by. We'll miss you beau. God will keep you safe.

“ A happy place in my head I so often go to is sitting with you and Benny at the kitchen table. Blaring music, talking smack, and drinking coffee. It was safe, and it felt like home. I'll always have that. You'll always have a place in my heart, Beau. I hope you can finally rest without pain, brother. All my love.
