

Brenda Lee Sullivan

October 11, 1966 - February 17, 2025

Brenda was born on October 11, 1966 in Albuquerque, NM to Richard “Dickey” and Judy Grove. She was raised in Amarillo, where she attended schools. Known for her Rocky Mountain jeans and make-up on point, Brenda always lit up a room. She was the type of friend, mother and sister to have your back in all situations. Affectionately referred to as “Nana Banana” “Lou” and “Aunt Binkie” by her family, Brenda loved nothing more than cooking, celebrating and spending time with her family. She was creative and enjoyed crafting and collecting Southwest décor. She will be missed for her infectious smile and huge heart.

Brenda is survived by 2 daughters, Shawnta Alfaro and husband Michael and Brandy Sullivan, all of Amarillo; 3 sons, Gary Sullivan of Amarillo; Charlie Sullivan and wife Tisha of Amarillo and Tim Sullivan and wife Karen of Clovis; 2 sisters, Debbie Aragon and husband Bobby of Roy, NM and Jeanie Bain and husband Kleve of Santa Rosa, NM; brother Jim Grove and wife Vanessa of Wyndotte, OK; mother, Judy Bedford of Tucumcari, NM; 12 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her father, Richard "Dickey" Grove and her sister, Tammy Grove.
