

Bryan Austin Fields

October 16, 2024

Bryan Austin Fields, 30, of Amarillo passed away on Wednesday, October 16, 2024. He was born on February 13, 1994 in Amarillo, Texas to Joel Wayne Fields and Debi Ann Wicker.

Bryan had a huge heart, an amazing smile and brilliant blue eyes. He was a jokester, a prankster and “The life of the party”! Bryan was very protective of his family, especially his siblings. He loved technology and computers. Bryan at a young age, could fix any electronics and learned how to wire things up and occasionally blow them up. He was a genius but never thought of himself that way. Bryan was a ‘know it all” and would argue with you all day and night on something he believed in. His mind was always curious, looking at things in a different light. Bryan wanted to know how it worked and what made it tick. As a young boy and teenager, Bryan attended Pleasant Valley Assembly of God. There with his uncle and Pastor Bryan Vallance and Aunt Valerie Vallance, he was taught about the Lord Jesus Christ. He was a member of The Good News Bears, where he earned his nickname “Bry-Bear”. To his great-grandmother, Virginia Dannels Bryan was the apple of her eye and she loved him unconditionally. Bryan cherished time with his family and will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

He is preceded in death by his great-grandparents, Arnold F. and Virginia S. Dannels, Lena and Lauriano Alvarado, Juan Pompa and wife Carmen and Edith Inmon; his grandmother, Virginia Bull and his two grandfathers, Eddie Lee Wicker and Ray Clinite.

Bryan is survived by his parents, Joel Wayne Fields and wife Marie Esther Garcia, Debi Clinite and husband Mike and Elaine "Mom E" Wilson; two sisters, Nicole Pitzer and husband Brady and Jasmine Desiree Fields; two brothers, Elijah Clinite and Michael Clinite; his grandparents, Wayne and Shirley Fields, Becky and Ismael Pompa, Roxanne Berenger and Rudy and Margaret Barrera; two beloved twin nieces, Renley Nicole and Ella Marie Pitzer and numerous uncles, aunts, cousins and extended family.

“ I remember the day I taught him how to make spaghetti. After the spaghetti was boiled, I asked him to pull out a string of spaghetti and throw it up against the kitchen cabinet to see if it sticks. We laughed our heads off. He did it again and again. Miss you Bryan. Loved his carefree heart and blue eyes. RIP 💙

“ I knew Bryan while he attended school at Travis MS - this young man was so smart with the computers! I remember his computer privileges were taken away because he hacked into the schools webpage. lol He made the comment well this just proves it's not that secure! Praying for the family... RIP Bryan!
