

Delia Rosenberry

November 13, 1977 - December 4, 2024

Delia Rosenberry, 47, of Amarillo passed away on December 4, 2024.

Delia was born on November 13, 1977 in Dimmitt, TX to Erasmo Dominguez, Sr. and Juanita Garcia Dominguez. She was raised in Dimmitt, where she attended schools and played on the basketball team. She received her Certified Nursing Assistant license and worked as a CNA for many years. She loved to listen to Rock and Roll music and read books and journal in her free time. Above all, Delia was a great friend to her children and wonderful grandmother to her grandchildren.

She was brave and full of strength and lived her life with a free spirit. Delia loved adventure and concerts. She took care of anyone she could, even if it was her last. She wanted her family to know she loved them all deeply and was thankful for all of the amends she was able to make.

She is survived by her sons, Gage Rosenberry and Justice Bell, both of Amarillo; daughter, Aja Rodriguez; brothers, Gilberto Dominguez and his wife Norma, Reynaldo Dominguez and his wife Lynn, Erasmo Dominguez Jr., and Michael Dominguez; sisters, Dora Dominguez, Diane Gonzales, Donna Sosa and her husband Ramiro Sosa, Lisa Mendoza and her husband Oscar Mendoza and Jessica Posada and her husband Johnny Posada and 7 grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

“ I'll miss our late night Walmart trips, bath and body works runs, girls nights, and seeing your granddaughter's face when you bring her gifts you spoiled her with. I love you and you'll always hold a special place in my heart. We have so many laughable and beautiful memories together. I know you're at peace now. No more suffering. Rest easy momma. Hendrix Lynn loves you so much. ”
