“ So sorry for your loss. The Wolff family has so many wonderful memories of Frankie when our parents took us to Sayre for the holidays. He was always the one making everyone laugh. May he rest in peace and God bless you all.

“ Frank was my little brother. I was sixteen when he was born. Sometimes when I was carrying him around someplace people would ask me if he was mine. No. I had my son three years later. He was a sweet person even though we older sister more than brothers spoiled him. I'm so glad that we called each other and talked the last few years .I knew that he was sick for awhile. Before he got sick he would help anybody. When Fred was out of work one time he would come over and bring meat and cook for us. He and Donna helped us a lot. I loved my little brother so much and I'll miss those phone calls. We called him Frankie when he was small. See you again Frankie. <3
