

Joe Angel Lopez

September 5, 1984 - March 19, 2026

Today we remember and honor the life of Joe Angel Lopez—a devoted husband, a loving father of four, and a man whose heart was bigger than most of us could ever put into words.

Joe shared 21 years with his wife, Candy, and they were married on October 8th. Their life together was built on love, loyalty, and standing side by side through everything. His family meant everything to him, and he showed that in the way he lived every single day.

Joe was the person you could always count on. If you needed help, he was already there. He had a way of making people feel important, like they mattered. To Joe, there were no strangers—just people he hadn't met yet. He made friends everywhere he went and treated everyone with kindness and respect, often giving more than anyone expected.

He loved working on cars and fixing things, always ready to lend a hand. Even when his health began to fail, he didn't ask for favors—he just kept going, staying true to the kind of man he had always been.

Joe leaves behind a space that can never truly be filled, but also a legacy of kindness, strength, and love that will live on in his family and in everyone who knew him.

Joe is survived by; wife, Candy Lopez, Childre; Reyes Ashley Lopez, Zarkadio Lopez-Glass, Joe Lopez Jr., Jacob Lopez; Siblings, kassandra Gonzalez, Raul Lopez, Rafael Lopez, Michael Lopez and Andrew Lopez, Father; Raphael Lopez Sr., Grandson; Hezekiah Lopez- Glass.

He was preceded in death by his mother Linda Lopez

Let this be a reminder to all of us: don't wait to reach out, don't wait to say "I love you," and don't be afraid to lean on the people around you.

As it says in Scripture, "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." — Psalm 34:18

Joe will be deeply missed, always remembered, and forever loved.
