“ Love Ryan so much. I could share so many memories but all I can say is he was my best friend I’ll save him a seat at every table. He loved me so well.

“ Ryan was one of my “rock” characters in the THS UIL production of “Eurydice”. I remember him having fun and he helped design his costume. In looking back at these pictures, I remember a creative and beautiful soul—he was a joy to direct. My heart is broken.

“ Taking Nathan to Dallas was incredibly fun. I’m honored to be the person who got to celebrate his 21st and was there to enjoy it. ❤️ We’ve had so many more. Movies were our thing especially horror films and 3am photoshoots in empty parking lots, and 5 hour FaceTime calls when he needed to rant or just talk about the adventure he was about to take. I love you, Nathan, with my whole heart and I lost you way too soon. ❤️ But your love, your light, your soul and your heart were far too precious for this cruel world.

“ In 2014 I was in Lubbock for the summer taking a couple classes. One day when Tori was in the hospital there, he decided to take his mom's phone while she was asleep and text me. We had a whole conversation. I don't remember what we talked about but it is a very fond memory.
