Randy was married to Charisse Noland for 14 years and had two daughters, Ashleigh and Amber. As a youngster he was an All-City wrestler at Bowie Junior High and went on to wrestle for Amarillo High School. Randy loved to camp out and fish with his mom and dad. He enjoyed being outside under the stars around the campfire with his family. He was a hard-working man just like his dad. Randy started out as an apprentice in the Local Pipefitters Hall, where he became a journeyman and went on to license. He enjoyed traveling to new places and riding with a big smile on his face, excitement in his eyes. Randy would always remind us "we are just here to have fun!" He loved to load his bike up and go to the river and ride all day.

Randy enjoyed hanging out all winter with his buddies building next year's car, anticipating spring so we could take it out and have fun. It was what he lived for every since we were little growing up at the dirt track with our Pops! Randy was a lifelong dirt track racing fan, avid car builder and driver whose lifelong ambition was to be a race car driver and he loved every minute of it behind the wheel. Screaming down the track made him feel free until Monday when he started pricing the thing that got tore up Saturday night. But always back to the drawing board he was dedicated, loyal, well liked and will be immensely missed.

“ Randy stepped up as our father figure when I was in the 3rd grade & was there was ever since. He took my brother & I under his wing as his own up until the day my brother & I moved out of his house he bought for us so we could attend the same elementary school we were already at when he met my mom.

Randy was selfless. His love for cars quickly became a hobby of his and my brothers to learn together. We are forever grateful for all the love he poured into us when he didn't have to. Although things weren't the same the last few years, we will forever remember him & all he did for us. Heaven gained another angel way too soon ❤️
