Born on January 9, 1967, Rodolfo lived a life full of passion and adventure. He married the love of his life, Yolanda Goytia in 1985 in Mexico.

Rodolfo was a man who loved life and lived it to the fullest. He was an avid soccer fan, always rooting for his favorite team, Santos Laguna. When he wasn't caught up in soccer, you could find him boxing, throwing punches at the bag or recording himself practicing his moves, channeling his inner Rocky. His love for the outdoors was unmatched, especially during family fishing trips with his sons, creating memories that will last forever. Rodolfo also enjoyed the thrill of racketball, often playing just for fun with friends and family.

Professionally, Rodolfo started his career in Mexico as a television repairman before making the big move to the United States. He chased his American Dream and became a proud business owner, starting a successful car lot that brought him immense joy. His entrepreneurial spirit was a true inspiration to everyone around him.
