

Sandra McKown

April 12, 1972 - June 9, 2024

Sandra McKown went to River Road High School in Amarillo, Texas and loved being a River Road Wildcat and the color purple.

Sandra McKown was a loving and supportive wife helping Sean McKown, her husband, through his every day struggles with his disability. She was ever so proud of her son Robert McKown and felt very blessed that she was his Mother. Sandy was a little sister to Arlyne Sikon and Tammy Thompson and one could say probably the most stubborn of the daughters of Arlyne Mae, Sikon. She was a fierce and protective "Momma Bear" of her family and loved ones.

Sandra had a never ending love for motorcycles and would laugh and smile every time she saw and heard one, especially when a Harley would pass by her. She was a ball of energy every day doing her best to make sure everything was ok. Sandra was very patriotic; you could hear her amongst the crowds as the loudest cheering and whistling at every parade.

Sandra was an animal lover and had the biggest heart for her dogs and cats.
