“ Sonji was a student in my sixth grade language arts class at San Jacinto Elementary. She was so easy to like with her smile, her manners, her intelligence and her servant's heart. Sonji and I kept in touch for many years after she graduated college. She sent Christmas and birthday cards and we met for lunch many times. She shared her dreams and hopes of life in the radio or television business. I hope that many of those dreams came true for her and that she had a happy life. Sonji was a beautiful soul and truly one of my all time favorite students! Lynnita Tyler Uselton (class of 1978, San Jacinto Elementary).

“ Sonji and I were childhood friends, the summers of elementary school we always seemed to be together, more often than not in the same classes at San Jacinto. She was one of the truest friends I had in those days! I remember summer days of playing between my house and her house. More times than not she had Sheryl and/or Stephanie in tow they were just part of our summer gang! RIP my friend! Fly High!
