“ Steve was one of my best buddies back in our younger days in Morton. We played tons of softball together on the Nasty Boys team. He was the best shortstop I ever played with, and could hit the ball to the opposite field better than anyone I ever saw. He was also my designated driver a lot lol. He was a smart dude, and a real walking baseball encyclopedia. Though we kind of lost contact with each other after he moved to Amarillo, I'll always consider him my buddy...RIP Steve and hopefully there's lots of baseball for you in Heaven! “ Some of my very best childhood memories were made with my cool Uncle Steve. He gave me my very first baseball themed present, which was a little Mets helmet for my fifth birthday, and I wore it everywhere like it was a crown.

We'd ride around in his Chevy Silverado listening to FM 99, all those great '80s hits blaring through the speakers, and then swing by Sonic for a treat. He had this way of teasing that made you laugh and feel seen all at once, and some of his favorite pranks I have used on my own nephew and other little kids, because they were timeless.

That's how I'll always remember Steve. Funny, full of life, and the kind of uncle every kid hopes to have. I know he's in a good place now, and I trust I'll get to see him again someday. - Kidron

“ I'm thankful for Steve, He showed me all the ins and outs of the hotel industry. He was also like a father figure to me when I was battling demons dealing with my divorce. Thanks Steve and we shall see you soon
