“ I'm going to miss you so much Dad. You were always there when I needed you the most. I'll never forget the moment I fell in love with the Beatles after going through your amazing music collection. I'm going to miss sitting in your truck with you so you could show me "one" song. You were one of the funnest people to be around. And always knew had to have a good time. Honestly, you were the good time. Thank you for being my Dad, and always getting me ice cream because it was my favorite❤️ going to miss you and love you forever and ever Amen❤️

“You were the best Uncle to me and my cousins. I will always cherish the times growing up dancing around the living room and singing old songs and usually putting a funny twist to them or playing with all your hot wheels and army men. And as we got older going to real concerts with you and vacations and being the best great uncle to our children. Love you Uncle Tom, keep dancing in the clouds.

Fun loving and hard working guy, late to the table after working but always brought his smile, holiday attire and tea. Never forgot his family because He was a man of faith who loved the Lord. God blessed Thomas with an open mind and big heart. RIP my friend ☐
