

Ursula E. Hyatt

November 6, 1940 - December 30, 2025

Each of Ursula's family members have shared their favorite memories of her:

Daughter, Gabriele- taking her shopping

Daughter, Monika- going to see Christmas shows at the theatre and lights

Daughter, Marita- Cape Cod ocean trips

Daughter, Yvonne- her enduring smile

Son, Wolfgang- Conn. Westport Beach picnics

Son, Paul- proud that she raised 6 children

Grandchildren:

Erik- listening to Opera with her

Tiffany- drinking cinnamon apple tea with her

Amanda- she always made cute nicknames for the grandkids

Vanessa- petting bumblebees in her garden

Joshua- at Mirror Lake in New Hampshire jumping around like a frog

Kyle- going to the deli to buy meat ends to snack on

Callum- riding the public bus and meeting all of her friends

Caelan- love and support and made me feel special

Kira- playing with her miniature Christmas village

Great Grandchildren:

Laureli- remembers her eyes as blue as the ocean

Justice- pushed me on the swings at the park

Saedi- going to the ocean in New York

“ One of the strongest personalities I've ever known, and one of the funniest. I'll always remember her visiting for Christmas and making it so special, and our trip to Cape Cod. Her and my dad running as fast as they could down to the beach with fishing poles as soon as they saw birds circling over the water. Miss you and love you, Grandma ☐

“ I remember when we were kids, Mom took us everywhere in the Jeep Wagoneer. That thing was a tank and Mom was a pro behind the wheel. Arms and feet hanging out of the windows. Certainly enough memories and comedy to write a book or make a movie. The Griswolds have nothing on us. Mom took us to the beach, New Hampshire, Maine, Cape Cod, and more. Making sure her kids are happy was always at the top of her list ❤️

“ One of my favorite memories with gram was when I visited her and she taught me how to properly peel and cut a mango, but also how she made holidays so magical. She was always full of love, she had a beautiful heart and always wanted to see others happy.

“ I remember when I first met her, she was so small and quiet. I thought no way this is my great grandma, the same great grandma that everyone was always talking about. She had such a beautiful soul and kind eyes, the color of them reminded me of the ocean so blue and full of life

“ My teacher, My friend, My Momma!
I will always treasure the special times we had together and the laughs that we shared. I will always hold dear the special way you cared. When the day starts without you there, we're not that far apart, for every time I think of you, you're right here in my heart! I love you Momma
